UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO

CLARENCE GANAWAY,	) CASE NO. 1:11 CV 758
Plaintiff,	) ) JUDGE DAN AARON POLST )	ER
v.	ý
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	) MEMORANDUM OF OPINIC ) AND ORDER	)N
Defendant.	)

On April 18, 2011, plaintiff pro se Clarence Ganaway, an inmate at the Mansfield Correctional Institution, filed this civil rights action against the United States of America. The complaint makes general allegations that inner city minority children have fewer opportunities than children in the suburbs. Plaintiff's asserts this is "education genocide." For the reasons stated below, this action is dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915A.

A district court is expressly required to dismiss any civil action filed by a prisoner seeking relief from a governmental officer or entity, as soon as possible after docketing, if the court concludes that the complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or if the plaintiff seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. §1915A; Siller v. Dean, No. 99-5323, 2000 WL 145167, at *2 (6th Cir. Feb. 1, 2000)

Principles requiring generous construction of pro se pleadings are not without limits. Beaudett v. City of Hampton, 775 F.2d 1274, 1277 (4th Cir. 1985). A complaint must contain either direct or inferential allegations respecting all the material elements of some viable legal theory to satisfy federal notice pleading requirements. See Schied v. Fanny Farmer Candy Shops, Inc., 859 F.2d 434, 437 (6th Cir. 1988). District courts are not required to conjure up questions never squarely presented to them or to construct full blown claims from sentence fragments. Beaudette, Case: 1:11-cv-00758-DAP Doc #: 3 Filed: 05/23/11 2 of 2. PageID #: 18

775 F.2d at 1278. To do so would "require ... [the courts] to explore exhaustively all potential claims of a pro se plaintiff, ... [and] would...transform the district court from its legitimate advisory role to the improper role of an advocate seeking out the strongest arguments and most successful strategies for a party." Id.

Even liberally construed, the complaint does not contain allegations reasonably suggesting plaintiff might have a valid federal claim. See, Lillard v. Shelby County Bd. of Educ, 76 F.3d 716 (6th Cir. 1996)(court not required to accept summary allegations or unwarranted legal conclusions in determining whether complaint states a claim for relief)

Accordingly, this action is dismissed under section 1915A. Further, the court certifies, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3), that an appeal from this decision could not be taken in good faith.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
